

ALLIES CLAIM ADVANTAGE IN WAR HEAVY FIGHTING IN THE EAST

Germans and Austrians Are Driving With Full Strength Against Strongly Fortified Russian Positions Along the Polish and Carpathian Lines of Battle.

ANOTHER SUBMARINE SENT TO BOTTOM

Auxiliary Cruiser That Terrorized Commerce in Two Oceans Reaches American Port—New Greek Cabinet Is in Favor of Neutrality—Australian Continent Arrives in England.

The northern part of the line which constitutes the battle front in France and Belgium has seen heavy fighting, according to the latest French official statement. Nieuport has been violently bombed, but the district between the river Lys and La Bassée canal has witnessed a violent engagement between the British infantry, supported by French artillery and the German troops.

The British have carried what the French declare to be a strategic position in capturing the village of Neuve Chapelle, and they have made advances in the direction of Aubers, the northeast of La Bassée and also to the southeast. The German losses are reported to have been very heavy, 1,000 Germans being taken prisoner. The same statement declares that several fierce counter attacks by the Germans in the Champagne region were repulsed without the gain of an inch of ground. The Germans, however, seem to be well satisfied with what they have been doing in this particular region and officially estimate that the French losses have been at least three times as heavy as the German losses, numbering about 45,000.

Battling in Poland.
In the eastern war zone, particularly in Northern Poland, the Germans are attacking in large force. In other sections of Poland engagements are proceeding, while in the Carpathians the Austrians are following the German example and are driving with full strength against the Russian forces along the front from Gorlice to the Uzkoff Pass.

One of the most interesting incidents of the war, from an international standpoint, is the arrival at Newport News of the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich. This raider of the seas has been destroying commerce in the Pacific and Atlantic oceans and on Jan. 28 sent to the bottom an American sailing vessel, the William P. Frye, bound from Seattle for Queenstown with a cargo of wheat. The Eitel Friedrich has on board many persons who were taken off the vessels that she sank and is being taken into port for repairs. The sinking of the American ship is to be investigated, the Germans holding that her cargo of wheat was contraband of war.

German Submarine Sunk.
Another German submarine, the U-12, has been rammed, this time by a British torpedo boat destroyer. The U-12 was sunk, but ten of her crew of twenty-eight were saved.

A report reaching Berlin from Rotterdam says the British collier Beethoven has been sunk at some place not stated by a torpedo or by a mine.

The new Greek cabinet which has taken office stands for a policy of neutrality in the war. The ministerial declaration asserts that "the observance of neutrality by Greece was imperative from the very beginning of the European crisis."

An Australian contingent has arrived in England for service in France and Belgium.

The German reichstag, after a one-day session, has recessed to March 18 to give the committee time to arrange work. The budget, which, according to the secretary of the imperial treasury, balances $3,250,000,000.

SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS.

London, March 10.—Balked at other points, the Germans are now making an attempt to break through the Russian line of fortresses in Northern Poland. They are advancing from Khorjole on the East Prussian frontier along the Orzye river and by the roads leading southward to Przasnysz. This is one of the routes the Germans took in their great rush from East Prussia in February, which finally ended in their defeat at Przasnysz.

For their new attempt they have brought up troops which have been operating in the region of Grodno and some of the new army which has been trained since the outbreak of the war in the interior of Germany.

The point selected for the attack is the most favorable along the East Prussian front, for the splendid railway system can bring troops and supplies to the border, from which good roads lead to Przasnysz.

A big battle is developing in this region, while one of almost equal importance is in progress further north in the region of Suwalki, where the Russians have pressed the Germans back to their own border.

The Russians appear to have countered successfully the German offensive on the Pilica river and in the Carpathians they are withstanding continued attacks along the whole front.

In the western war zone the fighting, as for many weeks past, has been confined to the Champagne district, the Argonne and the Vosges, although there has been an occasional skirmish north of Arras. The Germans in the French report issued today say that the French offensive in the Champagne has been fruitless, which is at variance with the French reports of almost daily progress.

With all this heavy fighting on the continent, the people of England continue to concern themselves chiefly with the operations of the German submarines, one of which was sunk today by four times greater than any estimates ever presented—will be considered at this session.

According to a Swiss newspaper, a Budapest dispatch asserts that the Hungarian deputies have signed a declaration of the Hungarian government to the effect that Hungary's situation politically and economically is desperate and that half of her army has been destroyed.

French Official Statement.
Paris, via London, March 10, 11:50 p. m.—The following official statement was issued by the French war office tonight:

"In Belgium the town of Nieuport has been very violently bombed with 42 centimeter guns.

"Between the Lys and Canal of La Bassée the British army, supported by French heavy artillery, has achieved an important success. It has carried the village of Neuve Chapelle to the east of the road from Estaires to La Bassée and has progressed to the northeast of this village in the direction of Aubers and to the southeast in the direction of the Bois de Riez.

"It has taken a thousand prisoners, among whom are several officers, and has captured also some machine guns. The German losses were very heavy.

"In the Champagne region the enemy on various occasions on the night of March 9-10 and on the day of the 10th counter attacked with great violence but did not gain an inch of ground. We have consolidated and broadened our positions on the ridges which we seized, inflicting very heavy losses on our assailants.

"On the heights of the Meuse our artillery has completely demolished a number of the enemy's trenches.

"There is nothing to report on the east front."

Russian Official Statement.
Petrograd, March 10, via London, 8:20 p. m.—The following official communication was issued today:

"In the region of Suwalki our offensive continues with success. Near Seyn and Krasnopol our cavalry took about 200 German infantrymen prisoners.

"Yesterday and the day before the enemy fired a large number of twelve-inch shells at Ossowetz.

"There was a serious artillery engagement along the entire front on the right bank of the Narzew river. From Khorjole toward Przasnysz and along the river Orzye the enemy attacked with considerable forces made up of troops drawn from the region of Grodno and of men brought from the regions of Germany.

"On the left bank of the Vistula, in the region of the Pilica river, our counter attacks were successful. We captured several hundred prisoners and took some machine guns. We continued to advance.

"Near Lopuschko we repulsed day and night attacks which the Germans delivered in close formation.

"On the Dunajec there was a heavy bombardment.

"In the Carpathians the Austrians delivered numerous attacks along the entire front from Gorlice as far as the Uzkoff, but they all were beaten back with heavy losses.

"There have been no important developments in Eastern Galicia."

CALIFORNIA PLANS TO PURCHASE THE WESTERN PACIFIC

GOVERNOR JOHNSON IN MOVEMENT FOR STATE TO SPEND $50,000,000 FOR RAILROAD.

Sacramento, Cal., March 10.—A movement looking toward the purchase of the Western Pacific railway, now in the hands of receivers, was started today in the office of Governor Hiram W. Johnson. This announcement was made after a conference participated in by the governor, Lieutenant Governor Ehrenman, Rudolph Spreckles, a San Francisco financier, who originated the plan, and Charles S. Wheeler, an attorney, who has appeared as counsel for the Western Pacific in special cases.

The movement was started, it was said, on the theory that California's ownership of a trans-continental railroad would render the state independent of privately controlled railroads, and the belief that the Western Pacific could now be purchased at a bargain price.

Governor Johnson has approved the plans which will be immediately taken up, it is said, with a view to legislative action and the possibility of the submission of the proposal at a special election before the end of the year. The plans contemplate an extension of the railroad to southern California.

It is believed by the promoters of the project that the railroad could be purchased for approximately $50,000,000 and that the state would derive a net income which would make good the cost of the purchase. A thorough study of the possibility of legal obstructions has been made and it is said that none exists.

Pari-Mutuel Bill Killed in House

Austin, March 10.—By a vote of 78 to 17 the Texas house of representatives tonight struck out the enacting clause of the Clark pari-mutuel racing bill which had passed the senate. The house likewise killed the McNaulsen senate bill providing for interurban line consolidations.

The pari-mutuel bill was killed without a speech being made against it. The present anti-race track gambling bill was enacted eight years ago and this is the first session of the legislature since that time that any effort has been made to modify the existing statute.

AMERICAN NAVY WILL HAVE FOUR ADMIRALS ON FRIDAY EVENING

COMMANDERS OF THREE FLEETS NOTIFIED OF PROMOTION IN ORDER OF PRECEDENCE.

DEWEY ALREADY HAS TITLE

New Act of Congress Expected to Be of Great Assistance in Foreign Waters.

Washington, March 10.—Under the new law creating the grade of admiral in the United States navy, President Wilson today designated as admirals Rear Admirals Fletcher, Howard and Cowles, commander-in-chief respectively of the Atlantic, Pacific and Asiatic fleets.

Secretary Daniels at once cabled Admiral Fletcher, now with the Atlantic fleet at Guantanamo, Cuba, to hoist his flag today and thus become senior in rank. Admiral Howard was ordered to hoist his flag tomorrow, while Admiral Cowles in Asiatic waters will assume his new rank Friday.

"With the exception of Admiral Dewey, who enjoys a rank unique in the navies of the world, that of admiral of the navy," said Secretary Daniels tonight, "the only other American naval officers privileged to hold the rank of admiral were Farragut, from 1866 to 1870, and D. D. Porter, from 1870 to 1891."

Mr. Daniels said the selection of the three vice admirals and the chief of operations provided for in the new law has not yet been considered.

The new admirals will fly blue flags with four stars. They hold their advanced rank only so long as they continue as fleet commanders. If detached for other business they will return to their former grades and salaries. Their promotion is expected to do away with embarrassing situations which have arisen heretofore when American rear admirals with superior naval strength have not been

General Frederick B. Funston, commanding the American border patrol, arrived today from a trip along the western frontier and inspected the army post at Fort Bliss, Texas, near El Paso. He will proceed to his headquarters at San Antonio.

"In Galicia our troops have captured still more ground south of Gorlice. In storming one trench more than 200 prisoners were taken.

"Favorable conditions being more favorable yesterday, our artillery had an evident success in some sections of the Carpathians front. The line close to our front, which had been occupied by the enemy, was evacuated by him, owing to the flanking fire of our artillery. The enemy sustained severe losses. At one position on this front we captured 300 prisoners and much war material.

"Calm prevails in Southern Galicia, north of Nadworna an attack by an inferior Russian force was repulsed. At other points several advancing Russian battalions were repelled, and in the pursuit 190 men were captured.

"Nothing has happened in Bukovina recently. On the northern bank of the Pruth near Czernowitz, only skirmishes have occurred."

CARRANZA'S FORMAL REPLY RECEIVED AT WASHINGTON

Secretary Bryan Announces That Food Situation in City of Mexico Is Still Serious—No More Warships Will Be Ordered to Vera Cruz Until Further Developments.

SITUATION ALREADY DECLARED IMPROVING

Sacking of Piedras Negras by Evacuating Army Is Reported—International Bridge at Eagle Pass Again Closed—Little Military Activity Mentioned in News From Land of Montezuma.

Washington, March 10.—General Carranza's formal reply to urgent representations of the American government concerning conditions in Mexico City was received at the state department late tonight. It was expected at any moment. He said nothing of a definite character has reached the state department as to the reply which General Carranza is preparing to the American note demanding an improvement in conditions for foreigners.

Carranza's reply, translated late last night, is a denial of blame for conditions in Mexico and of various charges that foreigners have been mistreated. The hope is expressed that all foreigners will leave the City of Mexico until conditions there change.

Washington, March 10.—Secretary Bryan announced tonight that the food situation in Mexico City is still very serious and that the forces of General Obregon appeared not to have evacuated the city as yet, though this was expected at any moment. He said nothing of a definite character has reached the state department as to the reply which General Carranza is preparing to the American note demanding an improvement in conditions for foreigners.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, brought to the department a copy of a telegram received from Thomas Hohler, charge d'affaires of the British legation in Mexico City, declaring that the American note, a copy of which had been presented to General Obregon simultaneously with its delivery to General Carranza, had produced a good effect on the situation.

The charge pointed out, however, the necessity at all times of keeping a line of railway and telegraph communication open between Mexico City and Vera Cruz.

No More Ships Sent.
No more warships were ordered to Mexican waters today and no more will be sent pending further developments in the situation. The United States has already made representations on the subject of keeping railways communication open from Mexico City to Vera Cruz.

Mr. Bryan stated tonight that Chas. A. Douglas, Washington adviser to the Carranza government, now at Vera Cruz was co-operating with American Consul Sullivan in an attempt to solve the transportation problem. The secretary said consular reports show that the trains from Mexico City are being used for military purposes or being held for the subject of Carranza's requests have come, he added, from Americans in Mexico City for transportation facilities, but the department is doing what it can, nevertheless, to make the necessary arrangements for trains to carry away those who desire the warning from the Washington government for American citizens to leave Mexico City.

Situation Improving.
In a general way the situation seemed to some officials to have improved. There was an increasing confidence that Carranza would give the required assurances for the protection of foreigners and that the United States would not be compelled to take any steps beyond those already taken. The fear of famine still exists and the Mexican Red Cross has appealed again to the American Red Cross for assistance. Relief projects are held up pending the outcome of the state department's representations in behalf of the international committee, composed of wealthy residents in Mexico City who raised a fund to take charge of the situation.

The Carranza agency issued another statement today, saying reports of conditions in Mexico City were exaggerated and predicting that General Carranza's reply would prove that most of these reports were baseless. At the state department the official reports continued to show the condition of affairs as threatening, although officials thought General Carranza would instruct General Obregon to arrange for the policing of Mexico City in the event of evacuation. The Zapata forces are expected to take possession immediately after Obregon's men withdraw.

Reports from other parts of Mexico indicated that there was little military activity today. Secretary Bryan announced that an agreement was about to be reached whereby the exportation of sisal hemp from Progresso would be assured. The following information was given out at the state department concerning the evacuation of Piedras Negras:

Piedras Negras Sacked.
"Piedras Negras was evacuated on March 8 by the Carranza garrison. Only a small guard was left to police the town until the forces of Villa arrive, which are expected on the 16th. It is reported that they have been delayed by heavy rains and the cold weather. The commanding officer of the United States troops at Eagle Pass has permitted the Mexican wounded to cross to the American side. The commanders of the Carranza forces at Piedras Negras has given full assurances to the American consul that no property will be destroyed and that order will be maintained until the entry of the Villa troops.

The Washington agency of General Carranza gave out the following: "Piedras Negras was sacked by the Carranza forces before they evacuated the city yesterday, according to a message received this afternoon from the convention consul at Eagle Pass. Serious disorders followed. Governor Acuna is a refugee in Eagle Pass. The international bridge has been closed. The Carranza forces have retreated eastward."

At the war department Secretary Garrison made public a message from Colonel Hodges at Eagle Pass, Texas, stating that 61 patients from the military hospital in Piedras Negras, five men nurses, five women nurses, one surgeon and eleven attendants had been permitted to cross to the American side in view of the fears of consequences to the wounded after the evacuation of the city.

The text of a decree issued by General Carranza on Sept. 19, last, establishing in each district of the states of the republic under his control an assessment committee, the purpose of which is to register the real estate, fix its value and state the amount of capital invested, was received at the state department and made public.

T. & P. Hearing Concluded.
Dallas, March 10.—The Texas and Pacific railway was concluded today at the hearing for increased rates before the Texas railroad commission in Dallas. At the afternoon session Frank Kell, railroad manager for W. R. Gray, attorney, was the principal witness. He declared that west Texas is in a prosperous condition.

P. E. Tausig, general superintendent of the Texas and Pacific Railway company, presented, in concluding his evidence, a statement showing enormous increases in operating expense, caused by state regulations and municipal regulations. He was closely cross-examined by W. R. Gray, attorney, the commission, who asked Mr. Tausig the general question and then in its details, "Do not these regulations and their attendant cost impair the efficiency and safety of the service?"

Mr. Tausig differed from him on some points, but agreed that the "hours of service" law had, except in unusual cases, resulted well. The auxiliary law requiring the movement of freight through the Gulf board ports, he said, was unnecessary. "They kick them over, and as a rule Texas tobacco growers don't hit 'em when they aim point blank," said Mr. Tausig.

L. M. Griffin, general freight agent for the lines, took the stand. He gave division agreements of freight rates between other lines. He also testified that the T. & P. had suffered some loss of freight by the movement of freight through the Gulf board ports.

J. S. Pyatt, general manager for the receivers of the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico railway, was the last witness.

Educator at McGregor.
McGregor, March 10.—President Hady of Baylor Female college, Belton, delivered an inspirational address before the local high school today. He spoke of the great number of graduates along the line of President Hady complimented those in charge of the school for its high standing.

Accidentally Shoots Self.

Flow of Emigration Turns to Europe Because of War

Washington, March 10.—For the first time in the history of the United States the flow of immigration has been turned back toward Europe by the war and more aliens are leaving the United States than are coming here to make their homes.

Statistics made public today by Immigration Commissioner Caminetti show that the change came in December last when the number of emigrant aliens leaving this country was greater by 2540 than the total of immigrants entering. In January 1915 more departed than entered. The departures for the six months from August, 1914, to January last totaled 15,545 more than the arrivals, including both emigrant and non-emigrant aliens.

The heaviest emigration was shown among aliens from Southern Italy. Of these 75,629 more departed than were admitted during the seven months ended with January. This presumably was due to the calling of Italian reservists to the colors.

SPECIAL SESSION TO COME NEXT MONTH

GENERAL APPROPRIATION BILL FOR $18,000,000 WILL BE THE PRINCIPAL ITEM.

REVENUES CONSIDERABLY LESS

Modifications of Robertson Insurance Law Also to Be Considered by Legislature.

Austin, Tex., March 10.—April 19 or 26 will witness the opening of the first special session of the Thirty-fourth legislature, if no change in conditions occurs to cause a change of the governor's decision. Both branches of the legislature have adopted resolutions to adjourn the regular session sine die March 20 and this meets with Governor Ferguson's approval.

Of course, the general appropriation bill, which is expected, will be introduced a few days before sine die adjournment, will be the main item of subjects for consideration at the special session submitted by the governor in his message calling the extra session. The governor wants at least a month to study that bill and he thinks the members will have time that much time to scrutinize the items of the bill and be prepared to act quickly on it when they reconvene in April.

The estimates already submitted to the appropriation committees of both senate and house total nearly $18,000,000, while the revenue of the state from which these estimates must be met will not reach that amount. At least $4,000,000 will be pruned from the larger amount and probably more than that.

Other Important Items. There are several other important pieces of legislation to which the governor has been giving attention and which he will submit for consideration in April, one of the chief of these being a bill to modify the provisions of the Robertson insurance law in a way that will result in bringing a larger flow of money into Texas at lower rates of interest than now prevail.

Senator Gibson's bill, in behalf of which Governor Ferguson made an impressive talk before the senate committee on insurance a few days ago, will not again be called up in that committee at this session, but a similar measure will be introduced in the house at the special session. The reason for this is that it has been decided that the bill for the modification of the Robertson law fixing a graduated tax upon life insurance companies from beyond the limits of the state, based on the amount of their reserves loaned upon Texas securities, makes it a revenue measure which should originate in the house and come from there to the senate.

More Money Promised. The governor's frank advocacy of a modification of the Robertson law and his submission of commitments from foreign life companies pledging the investment of not less than $25,000,000 in Texas securities within five years from their re-entry into the state, for which commitments he stood sponsor, has had a marked influence upon the sentiment in reference to the proposed modification of the present law. Business men and bankers of high standing have rallied to the support of the modification plan and an organization has been effected through which a vigorous campaign of information will be waged to show the benefits that will follow the adoption of a revised form of insurance investment statute in Texas. Enlisted in this fight for a change that will bring a reduction in interest rates in this state are such men as Charles W. Campbell of Temple, banker, to whom Governor Ferguson offered the place of state banking and insurance commissioner, and which Mr. Campbell declined; E. D. Schumaker of Hillsboro, banker; L. J. Hart, capitalist, San Antonio; Col. Robert L. Ball, president National Bank of Commerce, San Antonio; A. Lon Curtis of Belton; B. Y. Cummings, Hillsboro, business man; Charles S. Fowler, San Antonio, capitalist; W. B. Lupton, San Antonio, capitalist; W. S. Conness, real estate dealer, San Antonio; Col. Ike T. Pryor, capitalist and former president Texas Cattle Raisers' association, and hundreds of others whose interests in the state are large and substantial, and whose business judgment and experience entitle their views to consideration.

Governor Ferguson embodied a recommendation for a bill changing the present law in his message and he will ask its passage, believing, as he

SUFFERED 10 YEARS WITH HEMORRHOIDS

Caused Itching, Burning and Pain. Lost Sleep, Irritated and Inflamed. Used Cuticura. Permanent Relief in a Month.

Stephens City, Va.—"My father had been a chronic sufferer with hemorrhoids for ten or fifteen years. The disease first manifested itself in the form of bleeding hemorrhoids and later developed into tumors as large as a hen's egg. Then he would be unable to work after some unusual exertion and could get no relief sitting or lying down. His trouble caused a great deal of itching, burning and pain. He lost a great deal of sleep. The affected parts were irritated and inflamed very much.

"It was during one of his severe attacks that I suggested to him the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. He found much relief from the itching and burning by bathing the affected parts with warm water and Cuticura Soap. After that he would apply the Cuticura Ointment. The first application relieved him considerably and after three applications he was able to go to work. He kept up this treatment for a month and was permanently cured." ## PRESIDENT HAD FINE EXPERIENCE

Stomach trouble is the direct cause of more derangements of the nervous system and general bodily functions than any other ailment. No other remedy has been accorded the instant success that has been obtained by Plant Juice, a vegetable combination of nature's remedies for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, which is being attested daily at the demonstration of this remedy here by local people. The following is the statement of Mr. John R. Thomas, who resides at No. 924 Page street, McKees Rocks, Pa. Mr. Thomas for the past nine years was secretary and now is the president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen's Lodge No. 321, and is also the chairman of the Grievance Committee of the P. C. & Y. train men and one of the best known and respected railroad men in the United States. He said:

"For the past five years I have suffered from stomach trouble; my liver was sluggish and I always had pains in the region of my kidneys; my food fermented in my stomach and would repeat; I was always constipated. I was so sick that at times I was unable to do my work and suffered up to the point of my stomach. I had heard of Plant Juice and tried one bottle of it. I improved from the very first and have now taken it for only a short time and my stomach does not pain me any more. Can you give me food and digest it perfectly; my kidneys are working fine, the pain is gone from my liver and I am not troubled any longer with constipation. I unhesitatingly endorse Plant Juice and gladly recommend it."

Yesterday in Senate.

Austin, March 10.—That the governor will not have his recommendations for a single board of management for the institutions of learning in Texas enacted into law at the regular session of the Thirty-fourth legislature now seems certain. The senate committee on education held a meeting this afternoon at which practically all its members were present, and made a favorable report on a substitute for Senator Astin for the Sackett resolution, which already has passed the house. This resolution gives the university exactly the same powers as it gives the A. & M., and it is said the university friends in the house, at least some of them, are satisfied with its provisions and will support the Astin substitute when it comes over. Senator Astin says his substitute clarifies the intentions of the Sackett resolution by empowering the university board to make appropriations for maintenance and improvements the same as the A. & M. board is empowered to do in connection with that institution.

There was a lively row in the senate late in the afternoon when Hudspeth called up the bill giving the state superintendent of machinery full control and supervision of plans and construction of public buildings, whether state, county, municipality or village. The bill was engrossed at a night session and Hudspeth wished to get it passed finally but aroused a storm of opposition led by McGregor.

Hudspeth declared the bill will stop graft by contractors and prevent waste of money upon buildings that fall down either before they are completed or soon after. He cited several cases of public building scandals. The bill was called back from engrossment and after the warm fight had kept the senate's attention all the afternoon, was again engrossed, with some amendments.

Car Shed Bill Passed. Townsend's "car shed bill" was finally passed, but with the "teeth taken out." He sent up amendments eliminating most of the drastic features and the vote on final passage was 22 to nothing.

Page's bill to buy the site of the first capital of Texas at Old Washington was favorably reported.

House amendments to the four-hour law for women were not concurred in and Bee, Hudspeth, McGregor, Cowell and Harris are named on the part of the senate for free conference. The amendment objected to makes the law apply to state institutions.

Labor Lobby Lectured. Clark's bill re-organizing the state board of health also was favorably reported.

Bagby of Lavaca lectured the labor lobby in the house this afternoon, saying tactics employed by alleged friends of organized labor injure rather than help those they sought to aid. He said: "I believe the time has come in the history of the Texas legislature when a line should be drawn. I favor all just legislation in favor of organized labor, but when the proposition is laid down that we must accept every bill they choose to draw up here and now amend it, not question its merits, but vote for it blindly without question, or suffer ourselves to be written down as 'unfair to organized labor' in their book, to be used in case we run for higher office at some future time; when things come to such a pass I say it is time to call a halt. I do not believe that a blackmailing system should be permitted in Texas."

The bill was that of Senator Bailey of Dewitt, providing bonded employees may select the surety where any company in which they are bonded. The two sections containing provisions relative to the cancellation of bond were stricken out and the bill engrossed. The $25,000 appropriation to keep foot and mouth disease out of Texas was finally passed with the emergency clause in which the senate at once concurred.

Former Governor Thomas Mitchell Campbell arrived tonight for his first visit to Austin in nearly a year. He says he has no political or legislative business here, but came simply because he likes to come to Austin.

ILL WITH RHEUMATISM, THE DEFENDANT WEARS SWEATER AND SHAWL IN COURT.

JUDGE SENDS COUCH TO TOMBS

Counsel for Co-Defendants Will File Motion to Dismiss as to Other Men.

New York, March 10.—Harry Kendall Thaw, who is on trial here with five co-defendants for conspiring to escape from the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan, was so ill at the conclusion of the proceedings today that Justice Page, before whom the trial is in progress, had the couch in the chambers moved to the Tombs prison for him to sleep upon. Thaw is suffering with rheumatism, brought on, it was said by the jail physician, by the draughts in his cell.

Justice Page had the couch moved after Thaw's attorneys had for the second time made, and the court denied, a request that Thaw be sent to Bellevue hospital for treatment. While Thaw sat in court today listening to the state's witnesses tracing his flight from Matteawan, he had a heavy sweater turned up to his ears. Unless his illness interferes with their plans, Thaw's attorneys will place him upon the witness stand tomorrow to tell his own story in his own way. In this manner, they said, they hope to show the jury that their client has recovered his sanity.

Nearly all the witnesses who testified before the jury were employees of the Matteawan hospital or persons who had seen one or both of the automobiles in which the escape was effected. Each of the employees were asked questions designed to indicate to the jury that Thaw was sane at the time of his escape. These witnesses were unanimous in agreeing that Thaw's personal appearance was always neat, that his conduct was exemplary and that he occupied his spare moments by reading textbooks on various subjects and current fiction.

Many of the witnesses who saw one or both of the automobiles during the progress of the flight identified one or more of Thaw's co-defendants as the men they had seen in them. One of these witnesses, however, identified a juror as Thaw and Thaw's friends as Roger Thompson. Flood and Thompson with Michael O'Keefe, Eugene Duffy and Richard Butler are the defendants.

As soon as the state's case is completed, Abraham Levy, counsel for the co-defendants, will make a motion to dismiss the case against all of his clients upon the ground that no evidence has been produced by the state to prove its contention.

Should the motion be denied, Mr. Levy asserted, he will interpose a complete defense for the five, divorcing, if possible, their case from that of Thaw.

Temple of Peace Suggested.

Concord, N. H., March 10.—General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, advocated, before the legislature today, the proposal to erect a "Temple of Peace" at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, to commemorate the 100 years of peace between Great Britain and the United States. Such a monument, he said, would have a strong tendency to crystallize and strengthen the sentiment for peace. Its cost is estimated at $300,000, of which the state legislatures are asked to appropriate a part.

New President in Haiti.

Washington, March 10.—Gen. Vilbrun Guillaume Sam, head of the revolution which recently overthrew the government of General Theodor in Haiti, was inaugurated president at Port au Prince yesterday, according to a report today to the state department. A te deum service in the cathedral and a public reception followed the inauguration.

Navs Warm Up by "Pepper" Practice

"Pepper" practice was indulged in yesterday at Katy park. This consists of what managers consider the best limbering up work for players that can be found. While it looks to be simple and even a trifle harsh, it brings a good deal of sweat to the brows of the men even in cool weather. Every fan who goes early to a regular game has noticed a better hunting short rollers or popups to a squad of men, usually alongside the diamond. The fielders then juggle the ball about, slapping or tossing it from one to the other in unexpected ways, in an attempt to catch each other off guard. The ball finally is tossed back to the batter, who hits it on its return.

Regular batting practice was held, the net being used. While the diamond was somewhat soft, Hardy is anxious to get the men in shape for a warm reception to the New York Giants who will be here Saturday and Sunday. The ball stung through the gloves, but the bunch stuck to the work for an hour or more in the afternoon. During the morning Hardy had the men on the second long walk in two days. The trip through Cameron Park and Lover's Leap was made Tuesday morning.

The same Saturday and Sunday will begin at 3 o'clock. On Tuesday at 3:30 the squad will line up a team against Rube Mosley's Bears from Baylor. The grounds are in better shape than they have ever been. Last spring the diamond was worked over. But little new filling had to be done this year.

Mail Being Carried to England Only by Liner Ryndam

New York, March 10.—The Holland-American liner Ryndam, which sailed today for Rotterdam via Falmouth, Eng., where she will deliver 1,800 bags of English mail, did not carry mail for Germany, as usual. The mail for Germany will be sent on the Danish steamship United States, leaving here tomorrow. ## Corn-Mad? Use "GETS-IT," It's Sure Makes Corns Vanish Like Magic!

A hard corn of skin makes up every corn. When you put 2 drops of "GETS-IT" on it, it shrivels up and comes right off—and there's your corn—gone by thunder! Simple as taking off your hat! That's why corn-millions have gone wild over "GETS-IT"—nothing like it ever known. Some folks, to this day, putter around with bandages, sticky tape, thick plasters, corn "pulling" salves, gouge corns out with knives, snip them with scissors, make them bleed and then howl because they can't get rid of sore corns. Use "GETS-IT." There's nothing to do but apply 2 drops. The work is done. "GETS-IT" does the rest. No pain, no fussing, no changing shoes, no limping. It never fails. ## ONE LITTLE DROP FALLS PER SECOND

Day and Night Process of Extracting Wonderful Earth Product Goes On.

The method of extracting Vitalitas from the peculiar earth substance in which it exists is by no means rapid nor is it complex. At the laboratories where large quantities of the liquid are being produced the process may be studied with deep interest. There are long rows of glass percolators filled with crude Vitalitas just as mined with the exception that it has become oxidized due to contact with light and air and has crumbled into a fine powder. The substance is moistened with distilled water and from the percolators the dripping process then begins and is kept up with the regularity of the beat of a human pulse. Drop by drop, day and night the dark golden fluid enters the percolation process, nothing is added to Vitalitas nor is anything taken from it. It is perfect as it is, and it is the most wonderful known curative Nature has given to mankind.

Taken into the system, Vitalitas helps to overcome many diseased conditions of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood. It cleanses, purifies and reinvigorates. The good it does is constitutional and not merely temporary. Investigate Vitalitas today at Powers-Kelly Drug Co. For sale by druggists.

A SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENT.

All that remains for the completion of the compulsory school attendance law is the signature of Governor Ferguson and we are confident that will be had within the next few days.

This bill constitutes by all odds the largest and most beneficial piece of work by the regular session of the Thirty-fourth legislature, and the fact that it was so stubbornly opposed in the senate is one of the evidences of the need for the measure. Indifference is the only excuse for ignorance in this day and time and where the indifference of a parent or guardian stands in the way of a child properly equipping himself for his obligations to the state, the state is very negligent of its duty if it does not step in and see that the wrong being perpetrated upon the child is righted.

Education of the right kind is the greatest heritage that can be handed down to any child or people. It enables one to find himself and to give the adequate expression to his personality. It promotes efficiency and opens the way for one's larger happiness and usefulness to himself, his family, his community and his state. To deny anyone an education simply through carelessness or neglect is a social crime of the highest order.

Texas has gone too long without compulsory school attendance already. She has lagged far behind her sister states in this respect. Many of the problems that are confronting us today would have been obviated largely, or at least made easier of solution had we had such a measure a generation or even a decade ago. But our people had not awakened to the necessity then and such reforms must come as the product of a slow growth and in response to a public demand. We fancy political reasons rather than any conviction of logic compelled a majority of the senators who opposed the measure to take that attitude. Votes are not as easily carried among people who are educated as they are among the ignorant, and the bugaboo of educated negroes and Mexicans appeared to frighten some of the solons.

But the measure has passed now, the state is looking as a unit to Governor Ferguson to approve it, and we shall expect to see the statute begin to bear fruits within a few years not only in a more intelligent citizenship, but a more efficient one. Boys of their class who have heretofore defaulted in their school attendance, roamed the streets and alleys, remained in idleness and finally gone to the devil, will soon be compelled to attend school and if they should not learn anything—but they will—they will at least be saved from the curse of absolute idleness.

And out in the country the boys and girls will learn to become better farmers and farmers' wives, as a result of having to attend school, and our schools are being made more practical by giving the pupils just the character of instruction which they need to make them more efficient. With this accomplished, the problem of farm tenancy will be lessened, life on the farm will be more attractive because the general level of intelligence will have been raised, and the returns from farming will be so much more liberal—due to the mixture of brains with the soil—that young men will not so readily forsake the farm for the larger attractions and the better salaries offered by the city.

The compulsory school attendance bill came clearly, just as does everything else that is worth having, but it is worth all it cost and the state will have occasion to thank throughout the years Senators Bee and Brelsford, who bore the brunt of the fight in the senate, where the only real struggle against this constructive and beneficent measure was waged.

You needn't do your spring shopping early if this cold weather keeps up, but you might very properly do some more winter shopping late.

WILL THERE BE A COTTON ACREAGE REDUCTION?

Ever since the prevalence of large cotton crops has sent the price of that staple downward there has been discussion of the need and means for the reduction of the acreage planted to that crop. But just as persistently as the reduction scheme has been advocated have the bulk of the farmers, anticipating a cut in acreage on the part of their fellows, and a consequent increase in the price the next season, refused to curtail their acreage and have not infrequently increased it in the hope of disposing of a large crop at an advantageous price.

And while there has been more reduction of cotton acreage in Texas this year than usual, that reduction is not near what it ought to be, according to Clarence Ousley, director of the extension department of A. and M. college, and he bases his opinion upon estimates from correspondents throughout the cotton raising area of Texas. He thinks Texas will feed herself next year, except as to pork, but the large cotton acreage, in spite of increased planting to grain and other feed crops is not so encouraging.

Defining this situation, Mr. Ousley says: "But I am afraid from careful observation, and from information received from correspondents in various parts of the state that the reduction in cotton acreage will not be as great as I had hoped for. Many farmers are assuming that there will be a great reduction and are calculating that the price will be sharply advanced as a consequence. Such calculations are likely to bring disappointment. In much of the cotton country the prospect is for a reduction of not more than 15 per cent and no where do I hear of a reduction contemplated to a greater extent than 25 per cent. In my judgment the continuation of the European war throughout this year is certain, and I can look for no increase in the price of cotton with a normal season unless the reduction is as great as 33 1-3 per cent. I believe that even in a state of war the world could consume at good prices as much as 12,000,000 bales of American cotton, but with the embargo pronounced against all German commerce, and with shipping utterly disorganized, there is no reason to expect that cotton will move freely in supplying even the demands of countries at war. Considering the surplus from the crop of 1914 it seems to me that a crop of as much as 12,000,000 bales will bring us to 6-cent cotton next fall. Certainly the man who calculates on more than 8-cent cotton without a much sharper reduction in acreage than now appears likely is taking desperate chances. With cotton even at 8 cents there is more money to the farmer in kaffir corn and milo maize for North and West Texas, and in peas, peanuts and sweet potatoes for South and East Texas. Besides, those crops can be fed to livestock if the price should not be attractive. In fact, feeding them to livestock is the best way to sell them, but another surplus of cotton will bring such disaster that the distress of the past season will be mild in comparison.

"As I have said, there is every indication that Texas will raise enough feed for her own uses. The increase of hogs also is very considerable, but we have just made a beginning in diversified farming, and those farmers who are expecting others to diversify and who are themselves counting on a profitable cotton crop are doomed to sad disappointment. I have made a very careful study of the situation and I can see no hope whatever for the cotton farmer who does not raise all he needs in the way of food and feed, for it is certain that the price of these products will be high. Raising cotton for 6 cents, or even 8 cents, to buy wheat at $1.50, or even at $1, means bankruptcy. Bankers, merchants and creditors generally who make advances to farmers are perfectly justified in requiring a sufficient acreage in food and feed crops to insure the maintenance of the family. With that assurance cotton will bring a net return in money whether the price is 6 cents or 16 cents, but it is absurd for any intelligent man to calculate upon high priced cotton next fall unless there should be some weather disaster or a much sharper reduction in the acreage than is now indicated."

We are not in favor of giving the majority of the members of the present legislature an extended vacation, but the rapidity with which business was transacted at Austin Tuesday during the absence of many members at the passenger station cornerstone laying at Dallas suggests that there is some reason for reviving that oft-repeated suggestion of reducing the members of the house of representatives and senate. We would substitute for the slogan of an organization that has come into more or less disrepute in this state of "Fewer Laws and Better Laws" that of "Fewer Lawmakers and Better Lawmakers."

J. J. Hutchison deserved the presidency of the Young Men's Business League no less for what he is capable of doing for it during the next term than for what he has done during the several terms of his predecessors. The success of that organization has been due to the wisdom displayed in the choice of its leaders no less than to the loyal support given always by the rank and file. And Mr. Hutchison is fortunate that Mr. Woodson and associates turned over the administration free of debt.

And just think of a man possessing so common a name as Smith doing the uncommon stunt of turning 32 successive somersaults in the air in a biplane. This goes to prove that it's the man and not the name that counts throughout the ages, we lose our bet.

"Three Armed Highwaymen Outwitted by Plucky Woman," reads a headline from Houston. Well, if plucky women haven't been outwitting the men of all classes throughout the ages, we lose our bet.

THE LEGISLATIVE INTERIM.

There appears to be much reason to substantiate Governor Ferguson's decision to give the members of the legislature a thirty-day recess between the adjournment of the regular session, March 20, and its convening in special session to pass the appropriation bills and consider such other measures as he deems necessary for their consideration. The double purpose of permitting the members to study over the subjects he will likely submit to the called session, and affording himself an opportunity to carefully scrutinize the appropriation bill is expressed by the governor in reaching this rather unique decision.

Additional mileage for an extra trip to Austin will make the deferred special session more expensive than an immediate one, but we believe this objection will be overcome in the larger good that will doubtless accrue from the deliberation of the members for a month before action, their consultation with their constituents and the closer examination of the appropriation bill at the hands of the governor.

Much legislation has been proposed at this session of the legislature that was not demanded by the majority of the people of this state. That body appears to have gone wild on the matter of special commissions. Some regulatory measures have been proposed that were entirely uncalled for, we believe, and it will have the effect of toning down such tendencies for the lawmakers to get back home and ascertain the public pulse on matters of general legislation before proceeding further in the work of enlarging the statute books.

Probably enough immature legislation will thus be nipped in the bud to offset the additional mileage expense of a second trip to Austin, while the governor will doubtless exercise his pruning knife in slicing off some appropriations. Some institutions have been made to suffer in the past because of the desire of the occupant of the governor's chair to make himself popular with the people by reducing the tax rate. We hope Governor Ferguson will avoid that blunder and feel sure that he will.

TRESPASSING ON PROPERTY.

Reports of the railroads in this state, filed with the Texas railroad commission, indicate that of the 929 persons killed by them during the past three years, 471, or nearly half of them, were trespassers. And of the trespassers, many of them were children under 15 years of age.

This is an astounding loss of life for which there is little or no legitimate excuse. The railroad right of way is private property, purchased, maintained and very heavily taxed at the expense of the railroads. A sense of justice would appear to allow the roads the right to debar trespassers from the right of way, or at least to relieve themselves of any liability when trespassers are injured by the trains.

All who are familiar with the present heavy demands made upon the income of railroads know that personal injury claims constitute a considerable portion of the expense. And many of the personal injury claims arise out of trespassing. In Europe any trespasser on railroad property is debarred from seeking to recover damages from the road. No such provision holds in this country. Our courts have been prone to allow as large judgments to trespassers as to passengers injured by the trains, and it does not impress us as being quite fair to the roads.

The counties provide highways and the cities streets and sidewalks for pedestrians and there is little excuse for them traveling on the right of way of railroads. An anti-trespass bill is now pending in the Texas legislature and out of a sense of justice to the railroads, but of even larger consideration than this, as a measure to protect human life, we believe it deserves the favorable consideration of the senators and representatives.

While there may have been no legal reason for Comptroller Terrell refusing the liquor license for a proposed saloon just beyond the city limits of Teague, Freestone county, a dry town, the moral people of this state will approve his course. The people of Teague have shown by their vote that they do not want the saloon and to have put one just on the outskirts of the town through a technicality of the law would have been to vitiate their desires in the matter.

Our best wishes to the members of the new Grecian cabinet. We cannot pronounce their names, but we take it that they are very classical gentlemen and possessed of a knowledge of that portion of Europe and Asia on which much of the history of the world has been enacted, and they ought to be able to give King Constantine very good advice in these troublous times, for he needs it.

Dr. W. D. Bradford, newly-chosen editor of the Texas Christian Advocate, will bring to his work a broad education, a thorough knowledge of the doctrines and work of his church, and a wide and sympathetic knowledge of the people whom he will serve. He will prove a worthy successor to the late Dr. Rankin.

Ex-Senator Bailey has given, unsolicited, $500 toward the fund which his home city of Gainesville is raising to purchase the promised home for the Girls' Industrial School. Now watch his enemies charge him with playing politics.

President Wilson has shown a fine sense of propriety in refusing to name as a recess appointee any man who has been refused confirmation by the senate.

"Dear Sir:

"Your letter of the 6th received and I answer, all the Texas brewers are interested in the McLennan county election, but their power or influence is very limited. Their interference in any way would be disastrous to our cause. The campaign must be managed openly by the committee of business men, who must assume the responsibility of success or defeat. It is not the business of the brewers' association, and not by the brewers' association. You have often expressed the money, in the strong power of brewers' money, which is correct in some things, but in local option elections in Texas during the past three years we have lost nearly all the elections where we spent only small amounts. Under your leadership McLennan county can be retained in the wet column, but the fight must be made by the county anti-prohibitionists on the result of the years' observation; and now let me have your side of the question."

I suppose you are controlling the business in that territory? If, yes, will you manage the campaign? or do you want agent to take charge of it? The plan of campaign must be to induce a few leading citizens of the county to lead the anti-brewers and most of the money required must be paid by the citizens. I have written a similar letter to Mr. Luedde, who might be selling in that county."

"Dear Sir:

"There are now called nine elections to take place before June 15, and our time (can't read this) is all gone. Mr. Paget will be in Teague, Freestone county, Thursday, and from there will go to Cisco, Eastland and Brady. After completing his work in the three counties, will go to Smiley and Beunavides.

Autrey and Wahrmond had a meeting yesterday at San Antonio, but I have not yet received a report on the subject. Hardin and Goliad remain wet. Crawford will be the next election; it will be a real dry. This office did all in its power to prevent the election in that precinct. Next in order is Limestone county; we expect to have a very strenuous fight, similar to Hardin county, where we did win by only 24 majority. The prohibitionists threaten a contest. Petitions are in circulation in several counties and we must offer resistance otherwise local option would soon accomplish the prohibition object, close all the saloons and breweries; statewide prohibition is not the only weapon of the Anti-Saloon league.

Postpone Elections Till Poll Taxes Paid.
"Mr. Zane Cetti,
"Fort Worth, Texas.
"Dear Sir:

"We carried Milam county and lost Llano. We had expected both results; anti-brewers prepared in Milam and not in Llano. We did all in our power to prevent calling that election in that county until next February, when poll taxes will be paid. Against our advice, anti-brewers have called an election in Grayson county, and are making an investigation. See four anti-brewers have made a mistake; should have waited till next February, but we will do our best to win. Some conditions prevail in Williamson county, but we hope to succeed in postponing call till next spring.

Rescue People Work for Poll Taxes.
"Calvert, Texas, Nov. 26, 1910.
"Hon. Otto Koehler,
"San Antonio, Texas.
"Kind Sir:

"We have plans on foot to canvass about forty or fifty towns and through the black belt of colored people and advise them to pay their poll tax. This is something very important and should be seen after before it is too late.

"Rev. J. L. Griffin, the 'Evangelist,' has held four meetings here; a great crowd of men were present and endorsed his work. He has also held meetings in Terrell, also at Corsicana, Ennis, Hutto, Elgin, Bastrop, Wharton, Bay City, Brazoria, East Columbia, West Columbia, Velasco and Angleton.

"I will mention here a few towns that ought to be worked up thoroughly: Calvert, Navasota, Marlin, Honey Grove, Rockwall, Tyler, Chapel Hill, Giddings, Temple, Beaumont, Denison, McKinney, Terrell, Bryan, Hempstead, Waco, Texarkana, Sherman, Sulphur Springs, Sealy, Victoria, Hillsboro, Paris, Greenville, Mineola. "Some attention ought to be paid to this particular work, Waco, Houston, Galveston, San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth and Austin are much informed, but the rural district ought to be seen after.

"We have a good man to handle the newspapers, all lodges and societies; we can't find a better man than Dr. Griffin to handle the people, both white and colored. 'Hear Him! There are thirty other good men that are willing to work among the people and are willing to see that their poll taxes are paid. We have plans on foot. We need some assistance. Mr. Raynor of Calvert will handle the newspapers. We have twenty preachers that will urge their people to pay their poll tax.

"Mr. Griffin has just returned from Galveston. He went to call on Mr. Adoue, but he was in San Antonio. Mr. I. H. Stein gave him a donation. Mr. Stein said the secretary and Mr. Adoue would take care of him.

"He called on Mr. R. L. Autrey of Houston. He said for him to go back to Galveston and see the secretary and he would certainly help you redeem the tent.

Mr. Luedde Promised Help.
"Mr. H. Prince loaned Dr. Griffin $5 and told him if he would go back to Galveston he was certain that he would get help. We are in great need of money to push this important battle to the front. Mr. G. H. Luedde of Waco said he would take the matter up with the secretary at Galveston. We have a charter filed in the department of state and our franchise taxes are paid for.

"We submit the matter to you for your investigation. Rev. Dr. J. L. Griffin is supreme president of the Rescue Association of the United States and Africa and is endorsed by 124,000 members of Texas.

TELEPHON OF SEAS NEWPORT NEWS

GERMAN CRUISER PRINZ EITEL
FRIEDRICH REACHES AMERICAN HARBOR IN SAFETY.

THRILLING STORY IS TOLD

Eight Merchants Sent to Bottom in Operations in Both Atlantic and Pacific.

Newport News, Va., March 10.—The German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich after a four months scouring of Pacific and Atlantic oceans, which culminated in the sinking of an American sailing ship in the South Atlantic January 28 last, limped into this port today and anchored for supplies and repairs. She brought with her rescued crews and passengers of American, British, French and Russian ships and lies at anchor tonight around the trophies of war that crumpled the bottom of the sea, but in a state of mechanical exhaustion from the strain of a 55,000 mile journey.

The German cruiser began her expedition at Tsing Tau, China, last November. Commander Thierichsen of the Eitel Friedrich admits sinking eight merchant ships, three British, three French, one Russian and one American. The sinking of the American ship, the William P. Frye, a sailing vessel, bound from Seattle to Queenstown with 5200 tons of wheat, most concerned port officials here and the Washington government. The list of vessels sunk by the German ship is as follows:

British sailing ship Invercoe, W. J. King master; crew, 23; owner, Iverline of Aberdeen, Scotland; sunk Feb. 17.

British steamship Mary Ada Short, A. E. Dobbing master; crew, 23; owner, James Westoll of Sunderland, England; sunk Feb. 18.

French steamship Florida, Monssion master; crew, 734 passengers, 36; owners, Compagnie Generale Transatlantique; sunk Feb. 19.

British steamship Willerby, J. Wedgewood master; crew, 27; owner, Roper & Co., of West Hartlepool; sunk Feb. 20.

Russian sailing ship Isabel Browne, Axmar Eriksson master; crew, 13; owner, Tronberg, Finland; sunk Feb. 27.

French sailing ship Pierre Loto, Tranchant master; crew, 24; owners, Societe Nouvelle D'armement de Nantes, France; sunk Jan. 17.

American sailing ship William P. Frye, H. Kiehn master; crew, 31; owner, Arthur Sewall & Co. of Bath, Me.; sunk Jan. 28. Cargo of wheat from Seattle, Wash., to Queenstown, England, for orders, declared to be contraband by German cruiser.

French sailing ship Jacobson, V. Leroux master; crew, 23; owners, Societe Les Vieux D'armement, France; sunk Jan. 28.

H. Kiehn of Baltimore, master of the American ship, after leaving the Eitel Friedrich with Customs Collector Hamilton today, told of his experience. With him were his wife and two children.

"I made my protestations that I was an American master of an American ship, the Eitel Friedrich sank the Frye on the morning of Jan. 28, blowing a gaping hole through her vitals and a charge of dynamite," said Captain Kiehn.

"I was almost becalmed when the German ship appeared about 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Jan. 27. I paid no attention to the first order to lay to, but when the Eitel Friedrich bore down on me I brought my craft to a standstill. After learning that I carried a cargo of wheat, the German captain told me that it was contraband and he intended to destroy it. I protested, but no attention was paid to my protestations.

"A German officer and squad of men went aboard the bark and I and my crew were set to work throwing the grain overboard. The German sighted another vessel, also becalmed, and made for her, returning about 10 o'clock at night, after having sent the other ship to the bottom, as I afterward learned.

"Evidently the grain was not being thrown overboard fast enough to suit the German skipper, for he sent a half hundred of his men aboard soon afterward and the work went on for hours. However, it was slow at best, and I was informed about 2 o'clock the next morning that my ship was done. "All of those aboard my ship were taken aboard the German cruiser and we were shown every courtesy throughout the remainder of the voyage.

"For two weeks before making this port the German ship molested no ships and always avoided them, not wishing to give the English cruisers any wind of her intentions. She proceeded slowly up the coast, all lights that were not out being carefully shaded.

"Last night, while nearing the cape, the wireless apparatus on board the Eitel informed us that there were four English warships in our immediate vicinity, two of which seemed very close. However, we eluded them and made this port in safety."

An officer on the German cruiser said that the black bulk was seen in the darkness about the time the wireless gave notice of the proximity of the English men-of-war. Many were of the opinion that it was one of the English ships.

Captain Kiehn said the Eitel Friedrich captured three ships on the Kaiser's birthday, the day on which the American bark was overhauled. He did not remember their names.

The William P. Frye of Bath, Maine, was owned by Arthur Sewall company. As soon as the Eitel Friedrich with 350 persons had anchored here, Collector Hamilton and aides visited the ship, the first-class passengers from the French passenger steamer Florida, together with the captains of eight destroyed ships, were brought to Newport News. Several officers of the German vessel, among them the chief paymaster August Louisseau, came ashore. The final order the paymaster took to the ship tonight from Collector Hamilton was the instructions to the commander that the ship could remain in port only for repairs to such an extent as to make her seaworthy unless she intends. The German paymaster also carried word that American officers would make full inquiry of Commander Thierichsen tomorrow of his sinking of the American sailing vessel.

Asked why the Eitel Friedrich left the Pacific, Paymaster Louisseau said: "Because we found little to do. We were after merchantmen for days we cruised about and saw nothing. When we reached the South Atlantic we had better luck. We were surprised not to find British ships in the Atlantic. It is true we heard British wireless talking and we were glad of that because until

USE COCOANUT OIL FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Just plain mulitised coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitised coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last every one in the family for months.

fourteen days ago we had no news. Then we got considerable from British wireless, but the trouble was it was all from the English side."

The German officer expressed surprise that any of the Emden's crew had reached shore and that the German battleships of Chile and the Falkland Islands.

"We were alone," he said, "and we worked for ourselves. We did no fighting. We sunk every merchantman we could find. Of course we would have attacked any other converted vessel of our class, but we had no armor plate and so we avoided warships."

Passengers aboard the Eitel Friedrich said they were given every comfort and consideration.

"We were waiting admiralty orders," was the paymaster's response to the suggestion that he might not leave immediately. "They are coming from Berlin by way of the Washington embassy."

The sinking of the Frye was regarded by the officer as all in a day's work. "She took the chance," he said, "She was carrying contraband to the enemy."

The captain of the Florida has telegraphed the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique for passage to New York for his passengers. From New York they expect to be transported to their respective European home destinations.

Captain Thierichsen reported no deaths had occurred on board, since the voyage began.

Captain Kiehn of the Frye tonight said his ship was valued at about $200,000 and the cargo of wheat was worth about $600,000.

Captain Monssion of the French passenger steamer Florida said his ship—bound from Havre to Brazil—was in Calais, Liverpool and Dakar, South Africa, and then came directly across the Atlantic. The vessel, he said, carried 88 passengers and a crew of 78. He was five sailing days from Bahia, when stopped by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich. A boarding party came aboard and ordered the passengers and crew to the boats as the ship would be sunk. He failed to sink the vessel and guns from the warship completed her destruction.

Officers of the vessels sunk tell similar stories.

Captain King of the Invercoe declares that six members of his crew are under detention aboard the warship because they refused to sign an agreement not to take up arms against Germany.

Collector of Customs Norman R. Hamilton said tonight it was obvious that the Prinz Eitel Friedrich would intern here. Commander Thierichsen had informed him the collector declared that he had no intention of leaving within the 24-hour limit and that unless permission could be had to remain until repairs were made, the vessel would be interned. The boilers of his ship, Thierichsen said, were in bad condition and repairs under six weeks would be impossible.

Passengers on the Eitel Friedrich will be permitted to land tomorrow about 150 sacks of mail taken from the steamer Florida, bound from Havre to South American ports, will be forwarded to New York.

Collector Hamilton tonight began an investigation of the sinking of the American sailing ship William P. Frye. The master of the Frye made a statement to the collector and tomorrow other members of the crew will be heard.

The commander of the Eitel Friedrich will be asked to give a detailed statement of the sinking of the American vessel, which occurred January 28 off the river Platte.

Sam Freund Leases Dennis Corner at Sixth and Austin

Sam Freund, for twenty-three years a wholesale and retail tobacconer of the city, has leased the corner store of the Dennis building at Sixth and Austin. The old building which now stands at this corner will be remodeled throughout.

Work will begin at once on remodeling the building. Two stores fronting on Austin avenue will be provided, each 22x100 feet. Behind these, fronting on Sixth street, there will be four stores, each 25x50 feet. Modern store fronts will be put in for the entire frontage on both streets a continuous stretch of plate glass. The second floor of the new building has been offered to the Young Men's Business League for quarters. If the floor is not taken by the Y. M. C. A. it is probable that Mr. Dennis will divide it into offices.

The large show window space of the new Freund store will be an unique feature of clear stores. New and up-to-date fixtures will be installed, and Mr. Freund stated yesterday that the store will be the finest in the south-west. The present main store of the Dennis building at Sixth and Austin will be operated as a branch, the new store becoming the main store. This will make four stores for Freund in Waco.

A membership campaign will be instituted in a few days, when several enthusiastic teams will work the city for members.

WOMEN APPEAR AS OLD AS THEIR HAIR

It is astonishing to see how much good-looking hair does toward producing a youthful appearance. It is astonishing also to realize how much the attractiveness of the hair is affected by the care we give it, especially in the matter of cleansing. In washing the hair it is not advisable to use a makeshift, but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of canthrox from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly, with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, and the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

Fire Chief Watches Boys Fight Flames at Old Womack Home

The home of J. T. Womack, 617 North Fourth street, was burned yesterday morning. The house was a two-story brick, erected about 45 years ago by Mr. Womack, who was an early settler here, and who was engaged in the drug business.

The building was owned by Milton Scott and occupied by Ed Pickett. The fire started on the upper floor. A passerby saw the flames breaking from the room and ran in and told Mrs. Pickett, who was busy in the rear of the house. Mrs. Pickett suffered an attack of heart failure as a result of the shock and was put under the care of a physician. The loss of the building was covered by insurance. The furniture of Mr. Pickett was valued at $2500 and was partly covered by insurance. Fire Chief A. M. Prescott is ill at the house adjoining, belonging to R. A. Hanrick. He was moved to a window and saw the members of the fire department in their good fight against the fire.

I. & G. N. Will Not Take Off Mart Train

The report that the night train from Waco to Mart over the International & Great Northern would be discontinued was characterized by local officials of the road yesterday as unauthorized and without foundation. The Waco office has received no notification of the change. Ticket offices of the road have just received the new time card which went into effect the first of March, the date on which the change was to be operative, according to the report. The new card contains the present change out of Waco at 12:01 a. m.

The report probably grew out of the announcement that the new time card would discontinue train service at night from Mart to Valley Junction. This change had the effect of discontinuing the train from Waco to San Antonio, which was announced by the general office.

The night train from Waco runs only so far as Mart. At the general meeting of the Y. M. B. L. Tuesday night the report of the proposed change was brought to the attention of the members by W. W. Woodson, the retiring president, who urged that every effort be made to induce the I. & G. N. to continue the train to Mart. Investigations yesterday revealed the fact that no such change was contemplated.

The grocery store of Elmer Barnett, 1001 North Sixth street, was burglarized Tuesday night. Flour, lard and other groceries were taken. Entrance was gained by prizing open the door with an iron bar, which was left behind.

Either Way— Drugs Are Harmful!

If a coffee drinker, have you stopped to think that, with every cup of coffee, you are taking from two to three grains of caffeine, a slow, but powerful drug?

According to medical authorities, caffeine is a cause of nervousness, heart trouble, indigestion, constipation and other ailments. It's a cumulative drug, and what's more, a habit-forming drug.

Sometimes, when the coffee-drug gets in its licks, you'll realize the harm it does; but wouldn't it be better to avoid trouble—stop coffee now and use Postum.

It is a pure food-drink, made from selected wheat and a little wholesome molasses, carefully roasted, ground and skillfully blended. This gives it a snappy taste much like that rich, old Java, but Postum is absolutely free from caffeine, or any other harmful ingredient.

Postum comes in two forms:—Postum Cereal—requires boiling—15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble form—no boiling required—made instantly in the cup with hot water—30c and 50c tins.

The difference is only in the form. Both kinds are equally wholesome and delicious and the cost per cup is about the same. Be sure to ask for the kind you want.

An Old, Family Cough Remedy, Home-Made

Easily Prepared—Costs Very Little, Acts Promptly, Sure and Effective

By making this pint of old-time cough syrup at home you not only save about $2, as compared with the ready-made product, but you will also have a much more prompt and positive remedy in every way. It overcomes the usual coughs, throat and chest colds in 24 hours—relieves even whooping cough quickly—and is excellent, too, for bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness and spasmodic croup.

Get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. It quickly loosens the dry, hoarse or painful cough and heals the inflamed membranes. It also has a remarkable effect in overcoming the persistent laryngeal cough in the throat and bronchial tubes.

The effect of Pinex on the membranes is known by almost every one. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract combined with guaiaac and other natural healing pine elements.

There are many worthless imitations of this famous mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Many Horses Entered for Kentucky Derby

Louisville, March 10.—With sixty-eight horses entered for the 1915 Kentucky derby, probably the largest field in the history of this event will face the barrier at Churchill Downs May 8.—The entries were announced today at offices of the New Louisville Jockey club, and include the champion 2-year-olds of the last year, horses that showed promising performance on the Kentucky and western circuits, as well as a number that have run good races as three-year-olds this year at Juarez, New Orleans and Havana.

With $10,000 dollars added, the race, it is said, probably will be the richest run on the American turf this year. It is for 3-year-olds at a mile and a quarter.

Among the probable starters are the unbeaten colt, Last Coin, from the stable of Butler with Kilkenny Boy and Peabody. Harry P. Whitney has entered Prince Henry, Sun Glass and Regret. J. E. Madden has five eligibles for the derby.

Other entries are Garbage, E. B. Cast, Double Eagle, James F. Johnson, Masquerader, Rai Pharis and Pullax, owned by John W. Whalen. Jefferson Livingston of Chicago has two English-bred eligibles for the derby. John W. Schell of Memphis has five entries. Ghetto Girl, winner of the Chautauque handicap at Juarez this year is regarded as the most promising filly entered. A filly never has won the derby.

The derby last year was won by Old Rosebud, a gelding, in the track record time of 2:03 3-5.

How To Gain Weight A Pound a Day

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "fat" there should try eating the Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure with every meal for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats and starches of what you have eaten into rich, firm fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of your body as waste.

Before buying your Spring Suit it will pay you to consult us and inspect our goods and prices.

City Attorney John Maxwell left last night for Fort Worth, where he will extend the invitation of the Y. M. B. Attempted Purse Snatching.

An attempt was made to snatch a purse from a woman whose name was not learned by the police last night about 7:30 on North Thirteenth, between Jefferson and Barron. The woman was on her way to church with a little girl. She saw the man behind her, but he stepped into a lawn and she thought went into a bag. She held to it and screamed. The man jerked her with such force that she fell on her face, striking the sidewalk. The man escaped without securing the purse. The little girl declared the man to have been a negro, but the woman was unable to give any description whatever.

MANY FINE PICTURES AT WACO HIGH SCHOOL

ART EXHIBIT AND PROGRAM DRAWS GOOD CROWD ON OPENING DAY.

Display Will Be Seen at 2 O'clock This Afternoon for Visitors.

As a prelude to the art exhibit, students and former students of the high school gave a program yesterday afternoon that ranked unusually high for an amateur entertainment. The assembly room was well filled, the audience enthusiastic and it was a happy throng of girls and boys that poured into the four rooms where the pictures are on display, at the conclusion of the program.

In the new cooking room of the domestic science department, just occupied this week, young ladies served tea and wafers to the guests. The Waco high school has one of the best domestic science departments in the southwest and the cooking room is equipped with individual gas stoves, lockers and everything needed in the culinary art.

Two of the high school boys gave an eccentric dance, some of them sang, the orchestra played and the glee club sang. Miss Nellie Keith rendered two beautiful solos and Miss Clara Louise Bruel proved her mastery over the violin in the delightful manner in which she gave the "Traumerei."

But, of course, the pictures were the leading attraction. They were placed in four of the largest rooms and filled all the available wall space. Copies of the masterpieces of modern art, the world's greatest artists are shown and the exhibit is one well worth seeing.

In one room are pictures of famous sculptures, cathedrals, Greek and Roman ruins and celebrated views from every corner of the globe, including the Matterhorn, the pyramids, the Sphinx, Stratford-on-Avon and many others. Portraits of famous Americans and American paintings occupy much space in still another room. There are also copies of well known works from the hands of Velazquez, Murillo and a beautiful copy in color of Steinbrecht's "Summer in the Forest." Dutch and Flemish artists are represented in another place. Then there are beautiful copies of Corot, Van Dyck, Rembrandt, Manue, Bonheur, Meissonier, Millet, Landseer, Millais, Reynolds, Turner, Watts, Constable, Alma-Tadema, Burne-Jones, Sargent, Whistler, Alexander, Burney, Inness and many others. The collection is a very complete one and will be taken from here to Belton.

Another program will be given this afternoon and the pictures will be on display today and tomorrow. Visitors may view the exhibition at 2 o'clock this afternoon before the program, which will commence at 3 o'clock. The exhibit is given for the benefit of the schools, the proceeds to be used in buying pictures similar to those being shown.

AUDITORIUM.

"Help-Wanted."

Emma Bunting, class and clever, known as the "little actress," presented that laughable, merry-maker, "Help-Wanted," to an appreciative audience last night, adding many names to her list of theatre friends and making her a stronger place in the hearts of Waco folk. Although well known in play circles of the state, Emma Bunting becomes more and more a favorite with each passing visit. "Help-Wanted" is a purely a laugh-act with a plot, however, that is worth while and displayed the human side of a stenographer's life—rather the various lives of the various stenographers. From the chewing variety to the real sensible, business woman are portrayed well—and in such an unusual way that it makes the show well worth the visit. "Help-Wanted" proved one of the best attractions at the Auditorium during the season.

MAJESTIC.

"The Girl From Paris."

Theatre-goers of Waco will have an opportunity, beginning tonight, of witnessing one of the classic plays of the season's repertoire in "The Girl From Paris," rich in color and comedy—a plenty, with one of the prettiest human interest stories imaginable. The Adelaide Irving company of players, each specially adapted to their special parts, have not been seen in this city to a better advantage than will be shown in this performance. Love in a woman's world, unfathomable, perchance, with adventures that are fascinating to the degree of thrills—and love is the keynote of this story—surrounding of "The Girl From Paris," Miss Irving, in the leading role, is exceptionally good, not detracting, however, in least from other members of the company by her portrayal of the part. All are unusually clever. In addition to the splendid story, the scenery is good, made especially for the production, while the costumes are a feature within itself. The orchestra music adds much to the attraction, and still another entertainment is the specialty stunts between acts. "The Girl From Paris" will be the program at the "family playhouse" beginning tonight.

COZY.

"Barriers Burned Away."

Tonight and for the remainder of this week Besse Dainty is offering at the new Cozy theatre a splendid dramatization of the novel, "Barriers Burned Away."

Thousands upon thousands have read this remarkable book and it has been translated into several languages. Perhaps no modern novel has enjoyed a greater popularity with the general reading public, and it will, therefore, not be surprising if there is an exceptional interest in the dramatic version of it.

Miss Dainty will be seen in the role of Christian Ludolph, daughter of a man who has royal blood in his veins and who cuts out of his daughter's life everything a young girl loves and takes interest in. He makes her hard and cold, but only externally. Within she is kind and generous. It is in this complex character that one of the most pleasing efforts of the dramatist is centered. Christine Dainty's hands will be seen in the dramatic version of it.

"Barriers Burned Away" concerns the efforts of a German baron to make enough money in the renting of buildings of frame houses in Chicago to enable him to return to Germany and rebuild the family castle upon the Rhine. For his daughter he has planned a marriage with noble blood abroad, and he forbids her making the acquaintance of any man in America with whom she might fall in love. To her father's house as a servant comes a young man who desires to love him, but her father's teaching study painting. Christine Dainty comes to love him, but he considers him unworthy. The summit of her father's business success comes just as the youth declares his love. Her father's wealth and points out the barriers to her and blood, and in the end she is reconciled. Everything Ludolph owns is consumed and he is made penniless. The barriers are burned away, and Christine finds happiness in the arms of the man she loves.

HIPPODROME.

"Officer 666."

Dan Moyles, who plays the part of Phelan "Officer 666," at the Hippodrome theatre today, is a sensation of the city. In George Kleine's five-part comedy founded on that delightful farce, is the man who really made the character famous. Moyles is an Irishman, as his name suggests, and the Cohen & Harris management made a mistake in casting the witty Irishman for the title role. After playing nearly five hundred American cities and towns, Moyles was brought to Waco by the company to London with an "Officer 666" success there. The American engagement, so when the question of filming the play arose, he was promptly signed up for his familiar part. Moyles relates a curious experience that befell him during the lengthy engagement. He was immensely popular from the start in the English capital and had the unique sensation of seeing his name in large letters on "busses," sandwich men and posters.

NEW ARMOR PLATE

THE NEW PROCESS, IT IS CLAIMED, WILL MAKE LARGE GUNS USELESS.

Another of the series of experiments to determine the resisting power of a certain class of armor was recently conducted with extremely satisfactory results. Fortifications built of this metal suite, which is made indestructible and it would be useless to bombard them.

It is useless to try to make a success in life if handicapped by poor health. You lack the strength and stamina necessary to win.

In the majority of cases of poor health stomach trouble is the real cause, but this can be corrected by careful diet and the assistance of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It tones, strengthens and helps the digestive functions and when the food is properly digested, strength and renewed vigor is sent coursing through the entire system.

The proper time for action is when you notice the first symptoms of weakness, such as loss of appetite, headache, bloating, heartburn, sour stomach, indigestion or constipation. By resorting to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, you can help Nature conquer them. Delay only aggravates matters and prolongs your suffering.

Take a bottle home with you today, but do not let the stamp over the neck be unbroken.

gravelly saluted Mr. Moyles as he passed by on the street.

One day when Mr. Moyles, or "Dinky" (as the members of the company called him), found himself in a crowd in Petticoat Lane, he felt a hand gently inserted in his waistcoat pocket. "Dinky" quietly grasped the hand that was reconnoitering and held that gentleman's head in what is known as a stranglehold.

This, of course, attracted the usual "bobby," who was going to recognize Mr. Moyles. Much to Moyles' astonishment, he released the pickpocket with the remark, "Stay there, now. Don't go wye!" Then he shook his head with Moyles in great dignity. More astonishment was caused by the fact that the pickpocket actually stayed there.

"Verily," said "Dinky," in relating his experience at the theatre last night, "they do things differently over here!"

QUEEN.

"The $5,000,000 Counterfeiting Plot."

William J. Burns, the man who sent more than a score of wealthy and influential men to the state penitentiaries and federal prisons, will make his appearance in the movies at the Queen today in "The $5,000,000 Counterfeiting Plot," which is a re-staging of the most famous secret service case.

His success in this mystery, which baffled United States experts for nearly two years, is merely an example of the application of common sense and business principles to the detection of crime.

"I do not believe that intuition plays any part whatsoever in good detective work," said Mr. Burns. "The time I ever came in contact with the so-called intuition was on the occasion when this intuition almost blocked our progress in the San Francisco aldermanic grafting case. Just at the moment when one of the arch conspirators was on the point of accepting his last bribe, by which we had planned to catch him, his wife urged him to let it alone, as something told her that he would only harm himself by accepting. The smiling alderman, however, refused to listen to that

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

LOOK, MOTHER! IF TONGUE IS COATED GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breathless, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach ache, diarrhea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 60-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for children of all ages and grown-up children of the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

Y M C A Will Hold Street Meetings on Saturday and Sunday

A series of street meetings will be instituted by the Y. M. C. A. next Saturday and Sunday night. J. C. O'Hair, a business man of San Antonio, will be the speaker for the first meeting. Mr. O'Hair has done this kind of work for several years, and it has proven a great success. The meetings will be unlike any street religious work that has been done in the city.

Automobiles will carry the speakers and quartettes from place to place. Regular preaching services will be held from the automobiles. The plan will be carried out for several weeks.

At the last meeting of the city commission permission was given the association to conduct religious meetings in the parks. This permission was given by consent, no action being taken by the commission. The religious work committee of the Y. M. C. A. has not yet announced its plan for carrying on the meetings in the parks.

Keep Your Lungs Strong

This advice is doubly important with the knowledge that every three minutes some one in the United States succumbs to consumption and many refuse to realize they are afflicted until it is too late.

It is after colds or sickness, from overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists that tubercular germs thrive because the resistive powers of the body are weakened.

Only with fresh air, sunshine and abundant rich food can one hope to arrest their progress, and the concentrated fats in Scott's Emulsion furnish fuel for rich blood, and its rare nourishment helps strengthen the lungs while it builds up the forces.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or run-down Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known and is free from alcohol or stupefying drugs. Avoid substitutes.
